YOUR DESTINATION – SYROS, THE NOBLE LADY OF THE AEGEAN

The capital of the Cyclades has all the advantages of a modern town, combined with those of a Greek island. Ermoupolis – the capital – is a rare neoclassical Greek town. Arriving at the port, one can see the beauty of Ano Syros, the medieval town with Saint George the Catholic Church, on top of it on the left hill, and the town of Hermoupolis with Anastasi Church on top of it on the right hill.

TRAVEL

By air: Daily (domestic flights) or from Mykonos (international flights)

By boat: From Piraeus by normal boat 3,5hrs and by fast ferry 2,5hrs

GO FOR IT

Syros has not been too adjusted to tourism. Spring and fall are also ideal to admire the endless blue from your boutique hotel window, walk in the narrow streets of the medieval city and taste local specialties.
